

; `cVU`DfcZygg|cbg#, `cVU`5V|cb
Sponsored by the Global Studies Program

Stephen James
California Baptist University

will present

Global Journey: A Practitioners Narrative

November 14, 2012

INTS 1128

4:00 - 5:45

Stephen James is an American-born British national conducting workshops and consulting in the field of Intercultural Communication in major urban centres of Europe. Stephen based out of London, England for 13 years and for the last 4 years has been located in the Basel, Switzerland area. Raised in Vietnam during the Vietnam war (1962-1975), graduating from high school, and attending university in Taiwan, Stephen and his family have also lived in Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan and the Philippines during the past 25 years. Stephen and Barbara are on a one-year contract in Riverside and are parents of 3 adult children, two settled in London and one in university in the USA.

For More Information:

Susan Ossman, Director of Global Studies
susan.ossman@ucr.edu
951-827-5524